

Supes spend to save county cyber assets, election security

Daniel Mintz
MAD RIVER UNION

HUMBOLDT – New software will allow Humboldt County to pinpoint the vulnerabilities of its cyber systems – including the election office’s system – and guard against hacking and malware.

At its September 17 meeting, the county’s Board of Supervisors took action to guard against cyber system disruptions.

The board approved a $25,000 cybersecurity software purchase that will be covered through a Help America Vote Act grant.

Tom Lukins, the county’s IT security analyst, told supervisors that the software will give the county the ability to continually monitor cyber systems for weaknesses that would enable malicious interference.

The county now evaluates individual servers “to determine if they’re misconfigured or if there is something out of date,” Lukins continued, adding, “What we don’t have is the ability to take a look at these collectively and get the right reports.”

The new software will specifically identify threats. “We want to know what’s out there in the wild,” said Lukin.

Board Chair Rex Bohn pulled the item from the meeting’s consent agenda, saying that he’s gotten calls from people who are concerned about Russian interference, voter fraud and hacking.

Highlighting the stakes involved in protecting cyber systems, Bohn referred to an expensive malware disruption that affected a southern California county.

“Imperial County got shut down for nine days – no payments, no bills, no anything,” he said. “They got a $2.5 million ransom (demand) in Bitcoin, they refused to pay it and paid $1.5 million in software consulting and people to come in to retrieve their information.”

Calling ransomware “a very, very real threat,” Bohn said that “20 counties have been hit” and so have “eight or nine businesses, locally.”

Supervisor Estelle Fennell noted that the county was the target of an email

Arcata declares climate emergency

Immediate action demanded on streets, in City Hall

Kevin L. Hoover
MAD RIVER UNION

HUMBOLDT – As part of a youth-organized protest spanning 150 countries, citizens gathered en masse on the Arcata Plaza last Friday to demand action on climate change.

DO SOMETHING Last Friday’s Strike for Climate saw hundreds of citizens marching to the Plaza with young people in the forefront, joining millions worldwide to demand decisive action to address climate change, global warming and sea level rise.

Speakers decried the gulf between the magnitude of the global warming threat and decisive action by political leaders.

Struggling to be heard in the noisy rally, they linked global warming to a variety of causes, including fossil fuels, deforestation, animal agriculture, ineffective leadership, capitalism and corporate misbehavior.

Meanwhile, with public concern and support peaking, an assortment of local, state and national officials weighed in in support of the students’ action, which took place three days before the United Nations Climate Action Summit 2019 got underway. Some local leaders issued statements endorsing the Climate Strike and call to action.

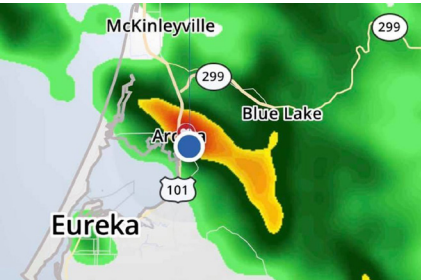

The City Council last week voted unanimously to adopt a resolution supporting a Declaration of Climate Emergency.

“Arcata, like many parts of the world, is already suffering impacts of climate change in the form of droughts and increased lowland flooding,” states the resolution. “The severity of these impacts will only increase if global greenhouse gas emissions are not significantly reduced.”

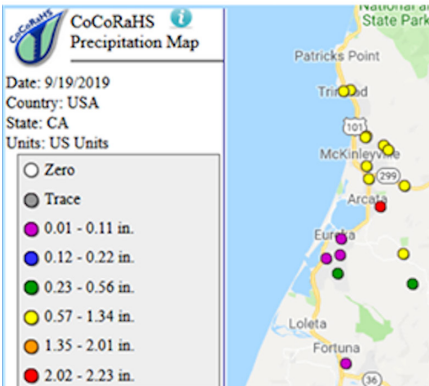

“Our young people rightfully ask: ‘What good is an education that prepares students for a future that

DOWNPOUR ❖ A5

HUMBOLDT – Weather radar apps showed a cluster of storm cells approaching the northern Humboldt Bay area last Wednesday afternoon, and soon walkways turned into waterways throughout Arcata.

Downtown streets flooded, with water intruding into buildings and dampening floors from the Jacoby Storehouse to the Arcata Vets Hall. City and Humboldt State facilities were stressed by the deluge, as detailed in subsequent reports.

While records weren’t broken, several were dented. The National Weather Service Office on Woodley Island in Eureka recorded 1.05 inches of rain, nearly tying a record of 1.07 inches for Sept. 17 set in 1967.

McKinleyville recorded over an inch for the day, and more than two inches fell in Arcata.

City Manager Karen Diemer said there was no comprehensive summa-

Sierra Club magazine dubs Humboldt State a ‘cool school’

HUMBOLDT STATE UNIVERSITY
HUMBOLDT STATE – For the second consecutive year, Humboldt State University lived up to its green reputation by being named #81 in the Sierra Club magazine’s annual ranking of eco-savvy colleges. Earning top marks in curriculum and waste management, HSU is among 282 best “Cool Schools” for sustainability and environmental conservation. For the past 13 years, colleges in the United States and Canada have been invited to participate in Sierra’s annual contest. To participate, each institution must have earned a valid STARS (Sustainability Tracking, Assessment, & Rating System) ranking of 2.0 or higher in the past three years. In 2017, HSU earned a STARS gold rating for its sustainability programs. Sierra then compares the STARS rankings to data from each college on environmental practices, energy usage, and their commitment to sustainability on everything from cafeteria compost to campus activism. HSU showed strong marks across the board. The University topped #7 Colby College in waste management practices. HSU also earned higher than average scores in food and dining and research. From student-led initiatives and curriculum to campus organizations and projects, HSU has demonstrated a long-standing commitment to environmental responsibility. For example, hundreds of courses in corporate issues related to sustainability, and many majors include a focus on the environment or social responsibility. In 1987, students created the Graduation Pledge of Social and Environmental Responsibility, which has been used by more than 100 universities worldwide. In 2012, HSU became the first public university in California to stop selling single-use plastic water bottles. The student-run Campus Center for Appropriate Technology is an eco-demonstration home and the Humboldt Energy Independence Fund supports student-designed energy-efficiency upgrades across campus.

FOREST FOUNDERS Humboldt State President Tom Jackson, R.H. “Red” Emmerson and Professor Emeritus Ken Fulgham at the Jacoby Creek Forest celebration. KLH | UNION

Humboldt State acquires a Jacoby Creek Forest

MAD RIVER UNION
D STREET NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER – Humboldt State and City of Arcata officials plus community members gathered last Thursday, Sept. 19 to celebrate HSU’s acquisition of the Humboldt State University Jacoby Creek Forest.

At nearly 900 acres, the forest offers exciting new opportunities for teaching, research, and outreach education.

Present were an array of contributors to the effort, including HSU President Tom Jackson, Jr., Former HSU President Rollin Richmond, Environmental Services Director Mark Andre, Red Emmerson of R.H. Emmerson & Son and many others.

The University is receiving the 884-acre forest for research and field experiences. The effort is possible due to a generous donation from R.H. Emmerson & Son LLC, as well as major grants from state and federal agencies (see story, right).

The forest is along Jacoby Creek about eight miles and a 25-minute drive from campus. It borders sections of Arcata’s Jacoby Creek Forest, which is part of the larger community forest, and it encompasses a large portion of the Jacoby Creek watershed. The City of Arcata is also adding 83 acres to its portion of the forest.
The area includes extensive stands of second-growth Redwoods as well as old-growth Cedar. It is important habitat for a variety of species including the northern spotted owl, bald eagle, Pacific fisher, and red-legged frog, and it is important for the health of downstream species including coho salmon and chinook.
Once HSU receives the property, it will be permanently protected from conversion to any non-forestry uses.

Mark Andre named a Distinguished HSU Alum

MAD RIVER UNION
ARCATA – Thursday, Arcata’s Director of Environmental Services Mark Andre was honored as a Distinguished Forever Humboldt - Alumni and was also recognized for his efforts to acquire 967 acres of public forest in the Jacoby Creek watershed. Some 884 acres of the forest was given to Humboldt State University to be used to enhance academic programs including Geology, Fisheries, Environmental Sciences & Management, Wildlife, Native American Studies, Anthropology, Forestry, Soils, Recreation Management and more.
Mark Andre (’79, Natural Resources Planning & Interpretation) is the director of Environmental Services for the City of Arcata and a registered Professional Forester. In this role, Mark oversees Arcata’s environmental programs, natural resources, parks and recreation, community forest, wildlife areas, and public utilities.
Andre manages an annual budget of $19 million and a staff of 40 full-time and 50 part-time employees. Because of Mark’s efforts the Arcata Community Forest, established in 1955, has grown considerably. He has worked closely with Humboldt State to allow use of the forest not just for field trips but also for research by faculty and students. The forest is nationally considered as a model community forest.
Andre recently helped lead the acquisition of 967 acres of public forest in the Jacoby Creek watershed, of which 884 acres will be given to HSU. He worked to secure a $1.7 million donation from the property owner (R.H. Emmerson & Son) and grant funds from several sources, including $1.75 million from the California Department of Fish and Wildlife, $800,000 from CAL FIRE Climate Investment Fund, $230,000 from the California Resources Agency, $1.72 million from the Wildlife Conservation Board, and $45,000 from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

ECO HEROES Ted and Pam Halstead, with Third District Supervisor Mike Wilson, above, were honored by the Humboldt County Board of Supervisors on Sept. 21 for their “incredible magnitude of hard work” for years of cleaning up environmentally troubled areas along Humboldt Bay and the Samoa Peninsula, and participating in Coastal Cleanup Day. Liscom Slough is another longtime beneficiary of the Halsteads’ selfless labors, and the two are also active with PacOut Green Team. SUBMITTED PHOTOS mary of Arcata damage, but that “we continue to respond and review damage. The major areas are H Street, 10th Street, 4th and Fifth and Grant. Our reports show two inches in just over an hour which would classify this as a 100 year event – albeit very short duration.”

Diemer said the wastewater treatment system came through the surge without trouble.
“We had no sewer upsets, but our First Street lift station did turn on which diverts heavy wastewater flows direct to the treatment plant, which is a signal that the collection system piping was at capacity,” she said.
The average intake at the Wastewater Treatment Plant, Diemer said, is 1.0 to 1.3 million gallons per day. On Wednesday some 2.165 million gallons came through.
Rainfall was wildly variable in Arcata, she said. Just 1.1 inches of rain fell on the wastewater treatment plant Wednesday while other areas received over 2 inches.

Jeanne Rynne, Humboldt State associate vice president of Facilities Management, summarized HSU’s impacts in a memo to staff.
She said her staff was on site “well into the evening” addressing issues, and expected more due to seepage.
A summary of water-related impact sites included:
• Gist Hall – computer lab 215 and 1st floor
• Theatre Arts – stage and several offices
• Toddler Room at Childcare Center – flooded
• Science B – Rooms 133 and 135
• Science A, third floor connecting corridor – ceiling flooded, shut off power to prevent further damage to light fixtures and structure, power restored after water subsided
• Science A entry way
• Facilities Maintenance – major flooding in front parking area, blocked egress from front door, water level approximately 12 inches above threshold after sandbags placed

• Rec and Wellness Center – minor flooding at entry way
• SBS – leak in hallway at west stairwell
• Natural Resources – minor water infiltration at lower level
• SERC – minor water infiltration at Rooms 103 and 206
• Jenkins Hall – minor ponding at lower level
• UC Mechanical Room – minor ponding
• Nelson Hall – minor ponding at air handling/mechanical room
• Housing – 2 flooded rooms in Cypress, residents relocated
• Founders Hall, minor ponding at elevator machine room, ¼ inch standing water at mechanical rooms and transformer room
• Redwood Bowl – drain at west bleachers adjacent to concrete wall plugged, flooding of adjacent track area subsided as of 6:40 p.m.

Water savings urged

CITY OF ARCATA
ARCATA – The City of Arcata is asking Arcata residents to conserve water while Humboldt Bay Municipal Water District makes scheduled improvements today, Wednesday, Sept. 25.
Humboldt Bay Municipal Water District supplies Arcata with water, and they have scheduled valve replacements work at their facility on Wednesday, September 25 from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Due to the work required for this project, Arcata’s water supply will be shut down while the work is taking place.
Humboldt Bay Municipal Water District would have been able to provide water to Arcata in the case of an extreme emergency. While their work is being completed on Wednesday, Sept. 25, they will not have that capability.

The City is encouraging residents to conserve water to maintain an adequate water supply and ensure fire protection reserves during this shutdown period.
Water customers may notice a small decrease in water pressure along with a slight increase in chlorine residual in their water during this time.
We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause to community members.
For more information, please call (707) 825-2129.

THIS IS A BRIEF The City of Arcata will provide complimentary sandbags to Arcata residents, while supplies last. To prevent flood damage this rainy season, visit the City’s Corporation Yard, located at 600 South G Street to pick up free, prefilled sandbags. When the prefilled sandbags run out, sand and bags will be provided to those who wish to make their own. For more information, please call the Streets and Utilities Division at (707) 825-2129.

RED DAWN ON THE LAWN The Plaza was ablaze with red flags and banners during the recent Arts! Arcata and Strike for Climate events. The Party for Socialism and Liberation is a working-class socialist political party, consisting of leaders and activists from many different struggles, founded to promote the movement for revolutionary change, according to Nathaniel McGuigan. “Our mission is to link the everyday struggles of oppressed and exploited people to the fight for a new world,” he said. The many ways that scammers attempt to trick you and steal $$

ARCATA POLICE DEPARTMENT
ARCATA – In light of recent activity, the Arcata Police Department would like to make the public aware of on-line and phone based frauds circulating in our community.

Scams come in many different varieties and through various sources such as text messages, emails, on-line advertisements, direct calls or even a stranger asking to use your cell phone.

They generally consist of the perpetrator offering a major prize or gift requiring minor payment and personal information, threatening prosecution for crimes if money is not received, sending an alert that one’s Social Security number has been compromised, offering a home for rent that is not their own, or borrowing your phone to access your money transfer applications or other private data.

In order to steal a victim’s identity, the scammer will often request the victim to fill out an application divulging personal data and to return it via email, or will simply ask the victim to relay their personal information over the phone or through a text message.

No legitimate business should ever ask for personal information such as Social Security numbers, date of birth or bank account information to be transmitted via email or text. No legitimate law-enforcement entity will ever ask you for money in lieu of prosecution.

Be cautious of rentals listed at a price point that is too good to be true, where the poster is not available to show the property, or cannot provide photos of the interior, or notes there is no reason to contact the real estate or property management agency.

All of these are attempts to steal your personal data. The bottom line is, never give money or personal information to unverified sources.

If you are the victim of or suspect a local scam, please contact the Arcata Police Department at (707) 822-2424, or the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction where the fraud is occurring.

Many of these crimes originate overseas and can be difficult for local law enforcement to prosecute. International frauds can be reported to the FBI’s Internet Crime Complaint Center at ic3.gov/complaint/default.aspx.

For additional information on current scams, you can access the Better Business Bureau’s online Scam Tracker feature bbb.org/article/news-releases/16758-bbb-tip-phishing-scams.

based hacking attempt during the 2016 election. Kelly Sanders, the county’s registrar of voters, said the county interacts with the state on cybersecurity threats and her staff has “gone through some pretty extensive training on what to look for.”

Also at the meeting, the county’s Sacramento-based legislative analysts, Karen Lange and Paul Yoder, reported on the year’s statehouse actions and those expected in the near future.

Lange told supervisors that the state budget includes about $500 million in new funding for homelessness reduction services.

It will be split up between cities, counties and “continuum of care” service providers. Lange said counties will get $175 million, with the allocations based on each county’s Point in Time Count of homeless residents.

“This is going to be an issue you’ll be hearing a lot about in the coming months,” she continued.

Briefing supervisors on upcoming legislation, Yoder said the state will advance a $15 billion “mega-bond” for K through 12 and higher education school funding.

He described it as “the biggest single bond ever in the state’s history.”

It will be on the ballot of the state’s March primary.

Yoder also reported that the state’s budget scenario continues to be positive, with $20 billion in reserves and revenues “continuing to come in over projections month after month after month.”

He said considering that, “Maybe there’s a little bit less for counties to worry about” when Governor Gavin Newsom presents his budget proposal on January 10.

Read HSU’s comprehensive Clery Act crime report

HUMBOLDT STATE
HUMBOLDT STATE – Humboldt State University has released its annual crime report for incidents in 2018 under a federal law known as the Clery Act.

Enacted in 1990, The Clery Act requires colleges and universities that receive federal funding to disclose campus safety information. The law also imposes certain basic requirements for handling incidents of sexual violence and emergency situations.

For the 23 campuses in the California State University system, the report, which includes statistics for the last three years, reveals crimes that were reported on campus, in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by CSU, and on public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

The report also provides institutional policies concerning campus security, such as policies concerning alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, sexual assault, and other matters.

According to HSU statistics, there were four reported rapes on campus last year—down from five in 2017.

Other findings for 2018 include:

- 141 disciplinary referrals for drug law violations
- 0 illegal weapons arrests
- 12 burglaries
- No reported cases of murder or manslaughter (negligent and non-negligent)

“HSU is committed to providing a safe environment for our students, employees, and visitors,” says University President Tom Jackson, Jr., in the report. “We share this information in a spirit of openness and with a deep commitment to supporting a safe environment for teaching, learning, and living.”

The report also lists HSU security awareness resources such as the ResLife Handbook, Campus Health & Safety Program, Women’s Self-Defense Class, and CHECK IT—HSU’s innovative prevention program aimed at creating conversations about ways students can disrupt and respond in the moment to violence they may witness.

Strangelings boldly break with tradition, reason

• Friday, August 30 10 a.m. When a man with a blue “wrap” on his head was found lingering upstairs in a downtown building where he weren’t spoze’ta be, he proposed an interim solution: to strike the person who found him with a chair.

11:51 a.m. Another household furnishing was conscripted to resolve a disagreement when a mother-daughter conflict briefly saw mom charge her spawn with a lamp.

12:49 p.m. While no one disputes the erotic potential of a red Chevy Blazer parked in a Valley West golden arches parking lot, the two making whoopee inside were deemed a threat to propriety, given the presence of children.

2:23 p.m. A man in stylishly matching green shorts and shirt ensemble sharpened a knife on a wire attached to a stop sign on Alliance Road, which gave a passerby pause in that school was soon to let out and students would be walking past the brazen bladesman and his gleaming slicer.

4:14 p.m. Just prior to his call descending into unintelligible gibberish, a man was able to relate a story about leaving his wallet with $400 in $50 bills inside on top of something called a “phone booth” at the transit center, and some hairy guy stealing it.

• Saturday, August 31 12:15 a.m. A sudden and unexplained paroxysm of door slamming engulfed Valley West Boulevard.

12:09 p.m. Relentless beeping of unknown origin transformed I Street into a brain-pummeling land of ceaseless sine-wave bursts.

4:03 p.m. From a rooftop at the end of Lewis Avenue, summertime funsters – at least one of them without benefit of clothing – “shot” golf balls out into the neighborhood via some unspecified naked-person technology.

8:13 p.m. Someone smeared epoxy on a car’s windshield, either on Beverly Way or at a Sunny Brae supermarket.

• Sunday, September 1 12:54 p.m. The rationale for flamboyant wielding of a machete in a carport may never wholly understood, but it must have been impressive to the resident’s cats and dogs.

7:21 p.m. A semi-clad couple succumbed to the irresistible sexy-time vibe of a Seventh Street bank ATM, giving an alarmed passerby a convincing impression of friskiness in progress in nearby shrubbery. However, the extent of the erotic misadventure was overbilled.

11:39 p.m. A woman with a leopard-print bag huddled in a Plaza alcove, threatening to cut passersby in half.

• Monday, September 2 10:24 a.m. A man in a downtown store’s parking lot busied himself breaking glass and rummaging through garbage.

1:51 p.m. A woman went into an H Street business, yelled at employees, stole paper and then went back outside to suck on a pacifier. Throughout the episode, the bizarreness of her behavior left no one involved with any memory of her attire.

2:56 p.m. A four- to five-dog pack of pooches went after a man outside a Plaza liquor store, with subsequent calls to police describing a battle between humans over the dogs. When police arrived, the growly scrappers had dissipated.

7:41 p.m. A car parked like the wind in Valley West, straining the limits of machine and man in terms of how much noise each could make in a hamburger stand’s parking lot. As the car’s alarm yelped robotically, a man on a bicycle serenaded the ailing vehicle with top-volume analog screechery. He then rode away, wind in his hair, shifting and drifting.

9:57 p.m. After a spasm of road ragery, an aggrieved driver followed their newfound highway foe to Hallen Drive to circle, stare and glare, with little cartoon daggers shooting out of their eyes at the other person.

10:01 p.m. Whether in celebration or conflict, a pair of men in Coombs Court honked a car horn and yelled with or at each other.

• Tuesday, September 3 6:53 a.m. His orange beard might have correlated with a cheery, colorful attitude or at a minimum some kind of mercenary Ronald McDonald-like industrial jollity. But no. The Valley West man’s facial clown wig masked a sad, even surly visage that made noises indicating a willingness to fight someone as though it’s their fault he looks so much like a moldy pumpkin.

11:42 a.m. Someone left their nice car with a custom paint job with the blue-green fade down the side out front of a G Street business and nipped inside for five or 10 minutes. And left the keys in the car. Like antibodies, the seething slurry of slithy toves that floods Arcata’s streets swiftly engulfed the vehicle, and it was gone.

10:24 p.m. A man who’d already stolen a tip jar from a Community Park health club was back, brazenly showering at the place whose workers he’d cheated. He was shown the door and told never to return.

• Wednesday, September 4 1:31 p.m. An Alliance Road resident reported a man banging on her door and then rolling around on the grass outside. The knock and roller was arrested.

9:39 p.m. A loose pig in a Janes Road yard eluded execution because rather than leave it with a friendly stranger, the Sheriff’s Office was summoned.

• Thursday, September 5 5:26 a.m. A bacchanal of bibulants glugged breakfast beverages out behind the library, a secluded parking lot tidepool teeming with libertine indulgence and sporadic pooping.

7:54 p.m. An Alliance Roader lines his yard with traffic cones to keep cars from parking on the grass, or did. He happened to notice a neighbor collecting the cones and deconstructing his perky palisade, and asked why. Because, the neighbor said, they were “ugly.” Ordered to restore the cone zone, neighbor-guy complied. But later, the ragtag roadside rampart mysteriously disappeared altogether.

• Friday, September 6 6:28 p.m. A tattooed man in a classic white t-shirt was said to be wounded and on fire between a Northtown market and motel. Police were asked to check in and see how all that was going for him.

6:28 p.m. At the same location, compounding the madness of the moment was a man in a wheelchair imploring passersby for water and food.

Two die in armored truck crash on SR299

CALIFORNIA HIGHWAY PATROL
SR299 – On Wednesday, Sept. 18 at about 11:45 a.m., the Humboldt Area CHP was notified of a two vehicle collision on SR-299, just west of the Willow Creek area.

Emergency personnel responded to the scene and located a westbound 2010 Chevrolet armored truck had collided with an eastbound Mazda Sedan, causing fatal injuries to the driver and passenger of the Mazda. The armored truck driver, 35-year-old Bradley Huss of Redding, received minor injuries as a result of this collision.

Both the driver and the passenger of the Mazda are foreign nationals and their identifications are being withheld pending notification of next of kin by the Humboldt County Coroner’s office.

A preliminary investigation indicates that the driver of the Mazda, traveling eastbound on SR-299 at an unsafe speed for the wet roadway conditions, lost control and traveled into the westbound lane where it was struck by the armored truck.

Alcohol is not believed to have been a factor in this collision.

The CHP Humboldt Area Office is continuing to investigate this collision and asks anyone who may have information to contact the Humboldt Area CHP Office at (707) 822-5981 or send an email to humboldt_area.chp@ca.gov.

Free signs encourage respect

HUMBOLDT – The Humboldt County Human Rights Commission is a volunteer 15-member group, appointed by and informing the Board of Supervisors on local issues. Our mission is to promote respectful, compassionate relations among all persons, and to advocate for peace, health, safety and the general welfare.

Last year, a member of the commission noted that some local retail folks were exhibiting the common sign saying they “reserve the right to refuse service to anyone.” While the intent may be understandable, the meaning of the words is different.

Asked if this meant that the business owner reserved the right to refuse service to black Americans, or LGBTQ persons they would invariably say no, “not those people.” MAGA hats not OK in Arcata? Vote blue hats not OK in Fortuna?

With these variables in mind, the Commission acted to produce professionally printed and laminated

WELCOME

Safe, respectful behavior is required here

Humboldt County
Human Rights Commission

(707) 268-2548

signs welcoming all persons with the understanding that behavior is key.

“Welcome – safe respectful behavior is required here.” It is hoped merchants will find such a sign is something they wish to post, rather than some more negatively worded signs, establishing an objective, uniform standard of behavior, upon which a merchant may validly need to protect, and not serve.

With an initial printing of 100 signs, the commission will make these signs available to any interested merchants, in any language requested. Already in place in libraries, some bars and restaurants, and public agency offices, these signs are now available at no cost, thanks to a generous grant from the McLean Foundation. All the commission asks is, that if you request a sign, please use it.

The commission believes that if you misbehave, right, left, or rainbow, you should expect to be called out. These signs represent fair notice to all equally.

For more information, call (707) 268-2548.

Nuke the gophers

Pouring gasoline down a hole is not only ineffective in killing gophers, tossing a match in will not produce a loud boom.

❖ LETTER

McKinleyville gophers are much to shrewd and resilient to fall for such amateur tactics and you’d be lucky to get a minor poof from five gallons.

For the desired results, I prefer nuking them.

NOTICE OF ARCATA PLANNING COMMISSION PUBLIC HEARING FOR LAND USE CODE AMENDMENT TO ESTABLISH A MOBILEHOME PARK EXCLUSIVE OVERLAY ZONE

Tuesday, October 8, 2019 at 6:00 p.m. in the City Council Chamber, 736 F Street, Arcata

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Arcata Planning Commission will conduct a Public Hearing on Tuesday, October 8, 2019, beginning at 6:00 p.m. in the City Council Chambers, Arcata City Hall, 736 F St. to consider a recommendation to the City Council on the Land Use Code text and map amendments to establish a mobilehome park exclusive zone implemented through an overlay to existing mobilehome parks. The new zoning overlay would require that all mobilehome parks on which the overlay is applied remain in operation as mobilehome parks unless the City determines through a public hearing procedure that the park could change or cease use as a mobilehome park. Staff will recommend the overlay zone be applied to the Town and Country Mobilehome Village, Lazy J Ranch, Valley West Manufactured Home Community, Arcata Mobilehome Park, and Sandpiper Mobilehome Park. The zoning would restrict use on these sites to mobilehome park and accessory uses.

PROJECT TYPE: Land Use Code Text and Map Amendment.

ENVIRONMENTAL: This ordinance is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Guidelines pursuant to Section 15061(b)(3) of the CEQA Guidelines. The proposed amendments establish process to change or end the use of existing mobilehome parks. The amended regulation does not result in a physical change to the environment. The amendment would incentivize maintaining existing conditions, which are the baseline conditions for environmental review. Any physical change to the environment that occurs as a result of the project level implementation of the new regulation would require independent and separate environmental analysis. The amendments clearly do not have the potential for causing an effect on the environment. Therefore, the amendments are exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act according to the common sense rule that there is no possibility the activity in question may have a significant effect on the environment.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that anyone desiring to present testimony regarding said project may do so prior to or at the public hearing noticed herein.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that the information regarding the proposed project and environmental determination may be reviewed at the Community Development Department at Arcata City Hall, 736 F Street, Arcata on weekdays between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., or by phone: 707-822-5955. Contact person: David Loya, Community Development Director.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that, pursuant to §1094.5 of the California Code of Civil Procedure, “If you challenge City action on a proposed project in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the hearing body at, or prior to, the public hearing(s).”

IF YOU ARE ASSERTING A CLAIM AGAINST MORE THAN ONE DEBTOR, SEPARATE PROOFS OF CLAIM MUST BE FILED AGAINST EACH SUCH DEBTOR AND YOU MUST IDENTIFY ON YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM THE SPECIFIC DEBTOR AGAINST WHICH YOUR CLAIM IS ASSERTED AND THE CASE NUMBER OF THAT DEBTOR’S BANKRUPTCY CASE (SEE ABOVE).

8. THE DEBTORS’ SCHEDULES AND ACCESS THERETO

You may be listed as a holder of a claim against one or more of the Debtors in the Debtors’ Schedules. To determine if and how you are listed on the Schedules, please refer to the descriptions set forth on the instructions accompanying the Standard Proof of Claim Form(s) regarding the nature, amount, and status of your claim(s). If you rely on the Debtors’ Schedules or the Standard Proof of Claim Form(s) you receive in the mail from the Debtors, it is your responsibility to determine that the claim accurately is listed on the Schedules. However, you may rely on the form you receive, which lists the amount of your claim as scheduled, identifies the Debtor against which it is scheduled, and specifies whether the claim is “disputed,” “contingent,” or “unliquidated.”

As set forth above, if you agree with the nature, amount, and status of your claim as listed in the Debtors’ Schedules, and if you do not dispute that your claim only is against the Debtor specified by the Debtors, and if your claim is not described as “disputed,” “contingent,” or “unliquidated,” you need not file a Proof of Claim. Otherwise, or if you decide to file a Proof of Claim, you must do so before the Bar Date, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this notice. For the avoidance of doubt, if you have a Fire Claim and it is listed as “disputed,” “contingent,” or “unliquidated,” you must file a Fire Proof of Claim Form.

Copies of the Debtors’ Schedules are available for inspection on the Bankruptcy Court’s electronic docket for the Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases, which is posted on (a) the Case Website and (b) the Bankruptcy Court’s website at <http://www.canb.uscourts.gov>. A login and password to the Bankruptcy Court’s Public Access to Electronic Records (“PACER”) are required to access this information on the Bankruptcy Court’s website and can be obtained through the PACER Service Center at <http://www.pacer.gov>. Copies of the Schedules also may be examined between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. (Prevailing Pacific Time), Monday through Friday at the Office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, located at 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94102. Copies of the Debtors’ Schedules also may be obtained by request to Prime Clerk; PG&E Corporation; c/o Prime Clerk LLC; 850 Third Avenue, Suite 412; Brooklyn, NY 11232; Toll Free: (844) 339-4217; Email: pgcinfo@primeclerk.com.

Please note that Prime Clerk cannot provide legal advice, nor can it advise you as to whether you should file a Proof of Claim. A holder of a potential claim against the Debtors should consult an attorney regarding any matters not covered by this notice, such as whether the holder should file a Proof of Claim.

Help RCEA do energy planning this week

REDWOOD COAST ENERGY AUTHORITY
HUMBOLDT – The Redwood Coast Energy Authority (RCEA) is continuing with a series of workshops to engage the public in its strategic energy planning. Workshops began in August and will continue through October.

Next up is a stakeholder meeting on local offshore wind energy, today, Wednesday, Sept. 25, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at the Wharfinger Building in Eureka, 1 Marina Way.

Wednesday's offshore wind meeting will include an update on RCEA's proposed Redwood Coast Offshore Wind Project and the status of engagement with the fishing community and other stakeholders, updates on Humboldt State University's research on local offshore wind, and time for public input and discussion. Sandwich wraps and refreshments will be served.

On Thursday, Oct. 17 there will be an opportunity to learn about and discuss the Complete Draft Comprehensive Action Plan for Energy (CAPE), which incorporates public input received in August and September on the Preliminary CAPE update. The updated plan includes RCEA's goal of 100 percent clean and renewable electricity by 2025 and proposed quantitative targets for RCEA's power mix makeup for the next 10 years. Sandwich wraps and refreshments will be served.

The meeting will be from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Humboldt Bay Aquatic Center in Eureka, 921 Waterfront Drive.

The next day, Friday, Oct. 18, from 1 to 4 p.m. we will return to the Aquatic Center for our Forestry, Energy and the Environment workshop to discuss biomass. Biomass power derived from mill residuals and other wood waste has been a significant source of local-generated electric power in Humboldt County since the 1980s and has been an element of the renewable energy power mix of RCEA's community choice energy program since 2017.

At this workshop a diverse panel of experts will share information, discuss, and answer questions about the role of biomass power in meeting our local electricity needs as well as its role in the management of local forest lands and the forest products sector of our economy.

The community is also encouraged to submit written comments to EnergyPlan2019@RedwoodEnergy.org. Recently submitted comments, meeting agendas, schedule updates, and additional meeting details can be found on RCEA's website, RedwoodEnergy.org. CITY OF ARCATA PRESS RELEASE THE CITY OF ARCATA ENDORSES A DECLARATION OF CLIMATE EMERGENCY

Arcata, CA, September 20, 2019 – At the Arcata City Council meeting held on Wednesday, September 18, presiding members of the Council voted unanimously to adopt a resolution supporting a Declaration of Climate Emergency. Adopting this resolution solidified Arcata's commitment to a just transition away from fossil fuels and a climate emergency mobilization effort to reverse global warming.

The world's leading climate scientists have found that global warming caused by the emissions of greenhouse gasses from human activities is among the most significant problem facing the world today. Arcata, like many parts of the world, is already suffering impacts of climate change in the form of droughts and increased lowland flooding. The severity of these impacts will only increase if global greenhouse gas emissions are not significantly reduced.

For years, Arcata has provided local, regional and national leadership regarding environmental and climate change reversal policy and practices. Over several decades, the City has made a commitment to reversing the effects of climate change with ongoing efforts including, but not limited to:

- Establishing the Arcata Community Forest in 1955, which increases tree volume each year to sequester carbon locally
- Creating a Greenhouse Gas Reduction Plan in 2006
- Developing a new Climate Action Plan and an All-Electric Initiative
- Implementing a Zero Waste Action Plan
- Purchasing 100 percent renewable electricity for all City operations
- The ongoing conversion of City facilities to Zero-Net Energy, with three facilities completed. The City of Arcata resolves to continue to actively work on renewable energy development, work to switch from natural and liquid gas fuel to electric each year and supply 100 percent of the City's operational electricity through renewable sources.

Further, the City will continue to track and monitor greenhouse gas emissions towards the goal of elimination and continue to educate and inform residents, businesses and visitors on preparedness actions we can all take to address impacts of the climate emergency in the form of disasters including droughts, wildfire, air pollution, power outages, increased risk of lowland flooding and other climate-related disasters.

The City encourages public participation toward greenhouse gas emissions reduction goals, including input from disenfranchised communities, and recognizes that Arcata residents, community organizations, labor organizations, businesses and schools are integral to leading this effort.

FERNDALE REP

FERNDALE – Ferndale Repertory Theatre (FRT) is kicking off their 48th Season with a rip-roaring production of Ken Ludwig's The Three Musketeers, adapted with humor and high energy from the classic novel by Alexandre Dumas.

The Three Musketeers is teeming with colorful characters, lively scenes, and comedic moments and the cast (featuring several recent Dell'Arte International graduates) will have you gasping at their quick wits and masterful swordplay.

Directed by Cleo DeOrio, this vibrant, clever, and very often comical production is guaranteed to entertain.

Performance schedule

The Three Musketeers has a $10 preview performance, Thursday, Sept. 26, followed by performances Friday and Saturday nights at 8 pm and Sundays at 2 p.m. from Sept. 27 through Oct. 27.

Tickets are $10 for preview performance. All other performances are: $18 general admission; $16 students (15 to college); $16 seniors (60-plus); $10 youth (ages 3 to 14).

A $2 Historical Building Preservation Fee will be added to each ticket. This fund helps make your visit more comfortable and keeps the building in good repair.

Purchase tickets at ferndalerep.org, (707) 786-5483, and at 447 Main St., Ferndale, beginning 30 minutes before curtain time.

Swashbuckling adventure

Set in Paris 1625 during the reign of King Louis XIII, the adventure-seeking D'Artagnan (Evan Grande) sets off to become a Musketeer of the King's Guard like his father before him, taking his tomboy sister, Sabine (Camille Borrowdale), with him. Along the way, he rescues a damsel in distress before encountering The Musketeers, Athos (Jesse March), Porthos (Jordan Tierney), and Aramis (Keenan Hilton).

That's when the real fun begins, as the quartet confronts the guards of divisive Cardinal Richelieu (Todd Hoberecht), Ravanche (Brad Harrington), and Rochefort (Jaison Chand) before setting sail for England to save the reputation of Queen Anne (Rebecca Tauber).

'Come Together' at Bayside Community Hall

BAYSIDE COMMUNITY HALL

BAYSIDE – Bayside Community Hall welcomes the public to "Come Together" on Wednesday, Oct. 9 from 5 to 9 p.m.

This celebration of all things local is an opportunity for family, friends, and co-workers to get together, in a fun informal setting, for a one-of-a-kind locovore meal, while raising funds to support ongoing restoration work at the Hall.

Talented local chefs will be paired with local food products to create a multi-course, small plates meal you won't find anywhere else.

The exact menu won't be released until the week of the event, but last year's eleven courses included plant cheese ricotta rolls, albacore croquettes, pork-apple skewers and stout ice cream, with enough variety to satisfy both vegetarians and carnivores.

The no-host bar will feature craft cocktails using Humboldt Craft Spirits, plus wines from Trinity River and beers from Mad River Brewing Company. Jackie Dandeneau and Brian

COME TOGETHER ♦ B3

Continuous – and as eclectic as possible

The Hum — it's a low continuous sound, the sound of activity. In this case it's the activity in the entertainment world of Humboldt County: music, art, drama, film — all the things that help us escape from the day to day grind and keep us sane in an increasingly insane world.

If you're among the few who read this column until the end, you might have caught my mention of the 25th anniversary of The Hum. I thought it started in September of 1994, but the truth is, I missed that date. The beginning was actually April 21, 1994. I was already writing for the Arcata Union, a now-defunct newspaper that in many ways became the Mad River Union. (We'll skip the entire history of local publishing for now.)

Back then the current Union publisher Jack Durham was the "B-Section" editor for the Arcata paper, dealing with entertainment and the like. I was freelancing for anyone that would print my work and actually had another Union column, "On TV," (on television of course) and also covered the local music scene. Jack's idea was for me to simplify his life by taking a bunch of "culture"-type press releases off his desk for some sort of grab bag. I was willing, as long as I could cover whatever I wanted to. He agreed.

The name I chose, "The Hum," was to make it all-inclusive, covering the music scene "and more," much more. For the debut, after the intro above, I started with a scene in front of the Jambalaya. There was a sandwich board advertising a new band, Mixed Tribe, featuring a friend of mine, Bishop Mayfield. Barb Robie, the owner of the Jam (at the time) had described the band as "funky reggae," and Bishop was erasing the word "funky," because, he explained, "We play straight reggae, not funk."

By chance, Bishop is in town Friday, Sept. 27, playing at the Blue Lake Casino as Bishop Mayfield and Friends, a band he leads in Southern Oregon (currently his home). The music is definitely not reggae, instead it's a mix of blues, rock, funk and soul. Bishop played a reunion show not long ago, bringing together players he knew from Humboldt back in the day. This is different.

"I will be bringing my band this time," he explained. "We have Dave Storie on guitar, David Towe on drums, Michael-Scott Bowman on bass and Dean Angermeier on keys." While the casino's ad says "blues/rock," expect more than that. "We'll be bringing a lot of soul," he noted. "It's also going to be a record release party. We have a new EP that's just arrived, and we weren't sure if it was going to make it in time for the gig." Just in time for the merch table.

The inaugural Hum touched on all sorts of things, from the local club world, to film happenings, to a jazz benefit for KHSU "and more." By design, the content was as eclectic as possible. That's been my plan from the start. Let's keep it going.

Wednesday, Sept. 25, March Fourth is at Humbrews. I met the band a few years ago in Portland, their homebase, where they marched into a party at an alt. newspaper conference. They offered an alt. circusy mix of funky, jazzy rock, played by a brass-heavy band with some of them on stilts. Got it? Expect a party, PDX-style.

Coming Thursday, Sept. 26, to the Arcata Playhouse, we have the ensemble Windborne, a group of "vocal chameleons" specializing in tight harmony singing with a multi-cultural range and a touch of edutainment. "They educate as they entertain, telling stories about the music and explaining the characteristics and stylistic elements of the traditions in which they sing."

Same night (Sept. 26), RampArt Skatepark has an evening of very heavy, very dark metal with headliners Ails from Oakland on the "melancholy melodic" side of death metal, Oneiric Eclipse, a black metal outfit from Santa Rosa, and locals, Miasmic a black/death metal band "inspired by the hoary mists and ancient redwoods of our surroundings" and Ghoulhand making "ritual soundscapes and music from sounds and devices." The all ages show starts at 8 p.m.

At Siren's Song, that Thursday, they have another Vinyl Tap, a "listening party for vinyl enthusiasts. Bring your records from home to play a 20 minute set. Show up to sign up." Yes, it's a DIY record party.

And on Thursday, (Sept. 26) in Ferndale at the Old Steeple, guitarist Chris Thomas King offers some classic folk blues. Originally from Louisiana Mr. King started his recording career with Arhoolie Records, which is now part of the Smithsonian Institute. You may have heard him in the Coen brothers' movie O Brother, Where Art Thou?, where he played the itinerant bluesman Tommy Johnson alongside George Clooney (among others). "I've never shied away from being called a 'blues artist

The fun never ends in BL

A couple weekends ago, Blue Lake had the opportunity to host one of the biggest musical events the City has ever seen, and it appeared to be a success. The night was warm and the moon bright during the Michael Franti portion of the Reggae n’ Funk Festival. We all were reminded to stay humble and kind. The following day saw some rain, but that didn’t douse the spirits any, with many still flocking to Perigot Park for the remainder of the show!

As we move into fall, the music festivals subside, but we have one more left! Don’t forget to come out for Hoptoberfest in October, which is a benefit for the Blue Lake Education Foundation. More information to come as we get closer.

And just before Hoptoberfest on Oct. 5 and 6 is the annual Medieval Festival of Courage, held at the Christy Ranch just outside of Blue Lake. This event is a fundraiser for many organizations, but is organized and is primarily a benefit for Coastal Grove Charter School.

Check out their website, medievalfestivalofcourage.org, to find out when specific shows take place.

Finally, I want to make sure you all know, this is your last chance to see the Blue Lake Museum for the season. But don’t worry, it’ll be open regularly again next April with new and exciting exhibits, but check out the ones on display for 2019 before it’s too late. Open Friday, Saturday, and Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m.

That’s all for now Humboldt, and remember, if you can be anything today, be kind.

HALLOWEEN FEST Head “Into the Mystery” at the magical Halloween Festival 2019 on Saturday, Oct. 26 from 5 to 9 p.m. Tickets are $5 each or $6 for a family of four or more, available only online starting October 1. Follow the link at huuf.org.

Describing last year’s festival, one grandparent says, “The children follow an enchanting Guiding Light, hear stories, meet the King and Queen of Halloween, and wend their way through a lighted grove of sparkling trees on a candle-lit pathway leading to about ten different skits and songs. At each, they learn about a different tradition of this season and receive a small gift. The magical journey culminates with cider and cupcakes around a bonfire.”

This unique celebration takes place at the Humboldt Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, located at 24 Fellowship Way in Bayside, about a half-mile east of the Bayside Post Office on Jacoby Creek Road. You don’t want to miss it!

The HUM | Can you dig it?

ist,” said King. “Unfortunately, the public has, over the past 100 years, forgotten its true meaning, how revolutionary [the blues] was at the turn of the 20th Century. The blues planted the seeds for America’s counter-culture — it’s quintessentially American music. I am proud to be its ambassador.”

If you haven’t caught Eureka’s Friday Night Market, you have one more chance, Sept. 27, and they’re going out with a blast. Music is by Huckleberry Flint, who hardly ever play out since they’re too busy with their day job, Dick Taylor Craft Chocolate. Also DJ Kyle Stasse will be spinning who-knows-what. The combination farmers market, craft fair and food festival is put together by Humboldt Made, the Visitors Bureau and the City of Eureka, this time in connection with Sensi Magazine covering our cannabis culture. As they put it, “Come and join us as we build bridges into the new normal!” More bridges, less walls, I can dig it.

It’s also midway for the Eureka Fringe Festival, with theatrical happenings all over town from Wednesday to Sunday, too many to list here. See last week’s MRU for details or go to visiteureka.com/eureka-fringe-festival for a full schedule.

At HSU’s Van Duzer Theatre Friday, standup comic Tig Notaro talks about her life, tells jokes, and makes you think. (Showtime 8 p.m.) Last time I checked there were nosebleed tickets available.

At the Logger Friday, grab some funk and soul from local “stalwarts” Bump Foundation affectionately known as The BUMP. (9-ish) Free,

At the Miniplex, also on Friday, they welcome Kendra Morris and Julia Haltigan, who, among many impressive accomplishments, are both members of the “fizzy pop” band The Singles, alongside Holly Miranda and Scarlett Johanson. (Yes, that Scarlett, no, she probably won’t be here.) Local support comes from the lovely Belles of the Levee.

Across town at Humbrews Friday, San Francisco’s “ambassadors of gypsy rock” Diego’s Umbrella are back after a hiatus during which drummer Jake Wood was working in the SF production of Hamilton. They promise some new songs and new merch, so be prepared.

The Handshakers return to Wrangletown Cider Friday with special guest Georgia Ruth Hellum-Willits followed by a second performance at Westhaven Center for the Arts on Saturday, Sept. 28. Georgia released her debut album Life Worth Living last year. She’s working on another. Friday’s show runs from 5 to 8 p.m. No cover, including for the outdoor venue. Westhaven concert begins at 7:30 p.m. with sliding scale cover.

New York-based songwriter Liana Gabel returns to the Sanctuary Saturday to perform music from her album Go Outside, which, coincidentally was recorded at the Sanctuary during an Artist Residency. She describes the album as speaking to the current state of things, “the nature of being an independent musician, which involves a lot of time on the computer, and on the other side, the tranquility we can find by just being with nature.”

We have dueling blues bands in Arcata Saturday, Sept. 28, with The Jim Lahman Band at Redwood Curtain Brewing (all ages, 8 p.m.) and Buddy Reed and the Rip It Ups getting down in the Basement (not sure what time).

That Saturday at the Jam, it’s time for another Session, as in a reggae sound system night, Kingston-style. Selectors include Noble Tobal, Curlylocs and Tanasa Ras. Big up!

At Humbrews Saturday, the Arcata Soul Party Crew cordially invites you to “turn on, plug in and freak out” at a “Psychedelic Soul Party.” Why? The theme is a birthday gift for light show guy Kevin Colando, who creates their psychedelic visuals (but gets little credit). Funky T-Rex, #Jaymorg and DJ Red are on the wheels of steel, with special guest DJ East One playing “trippy funk and Afrobeat.”

And at the Alibi, starting at 11 p.m. The Sturgeons and Opossum Sun Trail offer different styles of psychedelia. Trippy, man.

That’s it for now. Fair warning, I’m patiently waiting the arrival of my first granddaughter. I may not be here next week, or tomorrow, for that matter. We’ll see. Later...

Curtis will emcee, and there will be live music from the Bayside Corners All Stars, featuring James Zeller & Matt Wardynski.

The evening will include surprise announcements to recognize two inspiring honorees, and an auction of useful stuff and special experiences, including vacation rentals in France and Mexico, a variety of gardening and landscaping services, catered meals, and many more local products and services.

A rousing game of People Bingo helps attendees to meet new people and win some great door prizes.

During the past year, Bayside Community Hall has raised more than $250,000 to complete critical work on our 80-year old building, including a new roof, stoves and state-of-the-art ventilation system.

A seismic retrofit of the entire foundation is in progress and archi-

Arcata Sunrise Rotary was instrumental in completion of security and beautification projects, including a custom built Wallace and Hinz bar.

All proceeds from this event support these ongoing projects, and a generous local donor has stepped forward to match, dollar-for-dollar, what is raised.

There is also great fun in the coming together. Carolyn Jones, Hall boardmember and event organizer, said, “The Bayside Community Hall is important as a community gathering place as much now as when it was built in 1940. Bringing people together for this event is a great demonstration of how the Hall fits in to our community. When you support the Hall, you benefit the many non-profits, youth groups and businesses that use it.”

Advance tickets are on sale at Wildberries Marketplace for $50 each through Monday, Sept. 30.

32nd Pastels on the Plaza Oct. 5

NORTHCOST CHILDREN’S SERVICES

ARCATA – The 32nd Annual Pastels on the Plaza takes place Saturday, Oct. 5. The first Saturday in October is the day families, artists and sponsors gather on the Arcata Plaza for a magical art show. The sidewalk surrounding the plaza is transformed into a gallery of art with a riot of color!

This benefit for Northcoast Children’s Services is supported by local businesses that sponsor an artist by making a donation of $150 or $250 for a square of sidewalk art. New businesses and artists are always welcome and encouraged to sign up early to participate in the event.

Northcoast Children’s Services’ pre-school programs provide support and education to more than 1000 low income families with young children – from pregnancy up to age five – in over 30 locations throughout Humboldt and Del Norte Counties each year.

Lap up lovely lap dogs Coco and Chanel

Coco and Chanel are the lap dogs you’ve been looking for! At three months old and only a few pounds apiece, these Yorkshire terrier/chihuahua sisters would be a snap to pack up and take along on all sorts of adventures. Favorite activities include chasing balls, wrestling with kittens, and curling up together after a long day of play.

We normally do not adopt out litter mates together as we have found that siblings are more interested in playing with each other than listening to or bonding with their new “pack.” However, Coco and Chanel share a deep connection and have so much love to go around that we feel they could thrive whether they are adopted together or separately.

Coco and Chanel are available to be visited from noon to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday at 88 Sunny Brae Center. If you are interested in adopting, print out an application from our website (www.cafanimals.org) or pick one up in person! For faster processing, bring along your family or roommates to ensure it is a good fit for everyone.

Please keep in mind that animals featured here may have applications in the process of being reviewed. For additional questions, call us at (707) 826-PETS (7387) or email cafadoptions@gmail.com.

All of the animals at Companion Animal Foundation have been spayed/neutered, microchipped, treated for parasites, and are up to date on their vaccines.

PETS & PALS Coldwell Banker Sellers Realty in Arcata hosted their third annual Adopt-A-Pet Day Saturday. The warm, treat-filled day saw bright smiles from dogs and new owners, and some long-term shelter dogs found forever homes. “Coldwell Banker sponsors Adopt-a-Pet day in September and it’s done throughout the country,” Realtor Barbara Kadlecik said. “So far we’ve got some pets adopted and that’s the goal.” PHOTOS BY DAJONEA ROBINSON | UNION

Let Taz and Aurora co-star in your story

Do you remember our Redwood Pals Rescue dog Seamus, who went off to try his luck in the movie industry? I was able to visit him this past week on a short trip to the Los Angeles area.

He is doing just fine and has, in fact, completed a major motion picture! The film will not be released until October of 2020 and we have been asked to hold off on spilling the beans until the trailers are released... But keep reading this column! You’ll hear about it hear as soon as they give us the green light!

Our local stars for this week include young Taz, a four month old hound mix of some variety. Taz has a lovely shiny black coat, a lean build and long legs. He is still a puppy and is learning his leash manners and other obedience skills.

Taz is a fun boy, enthusiastic about his walks, his toys and meeting other dogs. Hounds are naturals for scent work and there are lots of opportunities locally to practice and compete in this area.

If you’re looking for a fun young dog for your family, come check out Taz!

He is neutered, microchipped and current on his vaccinations and is available from the Humboldt County Animal Shelter, located at 980 Lycoming Ave. in McKinleyville. The shelter is open Monday through Friday. More information is available at (707) 840-9132.

Aurora is rapidly becoming a Redwood Pals star. Aurora is a three-year-old Husky mix. She initially did not pass temperament testing at the shelter because she did not care much for being touched.

We’re not sure what’s changed but she has become quite affectionate. On a recent meeting with some potential adopters she was happy to be petted, gave them kisses and crawled right into the lap of one of the teenagers!

Aurora has lived with her offspring and their offspring and is very good with young dogs that need work on socialization skills. She has been quite patient with some of our enthusiastic youngsters at the shelter and demonstrating proper greeting techniques.

She is very good on the leash and is treat-motivated. She knows sit and will come to her name.

Aurora has not demonstrated an interest in escaping, which can be a problem with husky type dogs. She does have a crazy howl that not everyone will love, though husky lovers tell me it is cute!

Aurora will probably still need a gentle hand to get her big fluffy coat and tail properly groomed. If you would like to meet this sweet girl, please contact us at redwoodpalsrescue@gmail.com or leave a clear message at (707) 633-8842.

South Spit’s restored habitat sees return of Snowy Plovers

BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT
ARCATA – For nearly two decades, Bureau of Land Management staff in Arcata have been grooming beach habitat to encourage nesting by western snowy plovers, small shorebirds that are listed as a threatened species.

For much of that time, BLM staffers were disappointed when the birds ignored the new nesting areas.

That all began to change in 2016, when increasing numbers of fluffy, spotted plover chicks began appearing on the restored habitat beaches of the Mike Thompson Wildlife Area, South Spit, Humboldt Bay. The staffers were thrilled at the end of this year’s nesting season, when 37 chicks fledged on BLM’s South Spit habitat. It was a record year.

“A line from the movie Field of Dreams says, ‘if you build it, they will come,’ and we are happy to be realizing that spirit of optimism,” said Molly Brown, manager of the BLM Arcata Field Office. “The South Spit fledglings represented more than 50 percent of the chicks fledged during the 2019 breeding season in a snowy plover recovery area that includes beaches in Del Norte, Humboldt and Mendocino counties. A total of 58 chicks fledged in the entire recovery area, up from 48 a year ago.”

The BLM Arcata Field Offices manages 51 acres of breeding habitat for western snowy plovers that prefer to lay their eggs on wide-open expanses of beaches, where they can easily see and ward off predators.

To improve nesting habitat, BLM crews work outside of breeding season using heavy equipment such as bulldozers and agricultural tractors with discs to remove invasive European beach grass and add oyster shells to the beach surface.

Brown noted that Humboldt State University’s wildlife department and Dr. Mark Colwell, Ph.D. have been critical partners along with the Humboldt Bay National Wildlife Refuge.

The Mike Thompson Wildlife Area, South Spit, Humboldt Bay offers miles of nearly deserted beaches about 15 miles southwest of Eureka, Calif.

While access is restricted within snowy plover areas during nesting season, the spit provides Pacific Ocean beach access. Marshes on the bay side of the spit support waterfowl.

The BLM manages more than 245 million acres of public land located primarily in 12 Western states, including Alaska. The BLM also administers 700 million acres of sub-surface mineral estate throughout the nation.

Diverse activities authorized on these lands generated $96 billion in sales of goods and services throughout the American economy in fiscal year 2017. These activities supported more than 468,000 jobs.

Mr. David Jervis of Arcata recently observed that eating jerky is “best done as a solitary act.” Why? Notes the noshing Northtown-er, “Because you really do look a little bit like an animal tearing a piece of meat off a carcass.”
